

Lillian MacCannell
International Affairs Convener

Branch: Canoe Cove WI

Lillian MacCannell is a member of the Canoe Cove Women's Institute branch and joined the Board of Directors as International Affairs Convener in 2021.

Lillian's mother, the late Florence MacCannell, was a Life Member of the Canoe Cove WI. Lillian's early years were spent in Canoe Cove and she moved to Toronto in 1967.

After eight years in the insurance industry, Lillian joined North American Van Lines (NAVL) in Whitby, Ontario in 1976. During her years with NAVL, she was transferred to Edmonton, Toronto and Halifax. In 1996, Lillian joined the Canada Revenue Agency as an auditor and retired in 2013.

When Lillian moved home to Canoe Cove in 2015, she joined the local WI as well as the Canoe Cove Community Association. An Inman descendent, she operates the canteen at Lloyd Inman Memorial Park in the summers and works for H&R Block during tax seasons. Lillian is a mother and grandmother, an avid reader, and has enjoyed international travel.
